Leghorn, Dec. 31, N. S. By Letters from Genoa of the 25th Inſtant, it had been reſolved in the Grand Council to open a Loan of 150,000 Scudis of Silver, payable out of the Revenues of the French and Spaniſh Poſts, their moſt Chriſtian and Catholick Majeſties having, in the late Treaty with the Republick, conſented to the Aboliſhment of the two Poſt-Offices eſtabliſhed hitherto by their Authority in the City. At the Requeſt of the Court of Spain, the Republick has conſented to raiſe a ſufficient Number of Genoeſe Seamen to mann the Fleet at Carthagena; and have actually begun, by giving them two Months Pay Advance, with Security to pay Half the Wages to the Families of thoſe who enter voluntarily; and after their having been a certain fixed Time in the Service, if they deſire it, they are to be diſcharged to return Home. It is ſaid that a Reſolution will be taken to diſcharge the People of three of their Gallies, to eaſe the preſent Expences of the State. The Vaudois keep Poſſeſſion of the Defilé of the Carcari, and threaten the Weſtern Riviera, belonging to the Republick, with a ſecond Invaſion; the Fears of which have determin'd the Republick to remove, into Places of Security, the Treaſure that belongs to the Church called the the Lady of Savona, which is ſituated about eight Miles from the City of that Name. Letters from Mantua of the 24th adviſe, that Don Philip made his Entry into Milan the 19th Inſtant, and that M. de Gages was making Preparations to beſiege the Citadel. The ſame Letters confirm the Communication of the Imperial Army with the Milaneſe and Mantuan States being cut off by a ſtrong Corps of Troops poſted on the oppoſite Side of the Teſin, under the Command of M. de Vieuville. Letters from Madrid of the 1ſt Inſtant adviſe, that the Court had ſent repeated Orders to expedite the Embarcation of the Troops at Barcelona, for reinforcing the Army in Italy, and enabling them to puſh on their Deſigns with Vigour. By the Spence Sloop arrived here two Days ago, in eight Days from Mahone, there is an Account, that a French Martinico Ship had been taken off Cadiz by ſome of his Britannick Majeſty's Ships, and ſent into Gibraltar.

Berlin, Jan. 15, N. S. The Peace was publiſhed here on the 12th Inſtant by a Herald. In the Evening there was a Ridotto, and the painted Temple of Peace was illuminated, as were likewiſe the Palaces of the Prince of Pruſſia and Margrave Charles. A triumphal Arch was raiſed and illuminated at the Expence of the French Burghers who inhabit a Part of this Town. Some Tables were prepared in the Opera Houſe, where the Burghers had Liberty to eat. The whole Royal Family is at preſent here.

Inverneſs, Dec. 29. The March of Mr. Macleod with the Detachment of 700 Men, without the Grants, who returned from Strathbogie, forced the Rebels to retire to Aberdeen, and to ſend for a Reinforcement from Montroſe, Dundee, &c. They marched out of Aberdeen on the 23d Inſtant with about 1200 Men, ſo ſecretly, that they came up with Mr. Macleod at Inverourie, where he lay with about 300 of his Men (the reſt being cantoon'd in the Neighbourhood, at the Diſtance of a Mile or two) after Four o'Clock in the Evening, without being diſcovered, till they were ready to begin the Attack; Mr. Macleod however, and Captain Munro of Cullairn, got the Handful of Men they had in the Village immediately together, and notwithſtanding the Surprize, and the great Inequality of Numbers, maintained their Ground for about 20 Minutes, until they had fired away the greateſt Part of their Shot, and then made their Retreat in ſo good Order, that the Enemy did not think fit to purſue them one Yard. The Rebels do not pretend that we loſt in this Scuffle any more than ſeven Men killed, and 15 ſo wounded that they could not be brought off. Their own Loſs they took Care to conceal, by burying their Dead in the Night-time; but all the Reports from that Country agree, that it was much more conſiderable than ours. We have been obliged to retire to this Side the Spay, to prevent Surprizes of the like Nature, until we are reinforced. This Affair has however retarded the Rebels recruiting, and has forced them to detach from the South, which weakens them there.

Edinburgh, Jan. 11. Yeſterday Morning about 3 or 400 of the Rebels went off in great Hurry from Falkirk towards Airth, to aſſiſt their Party there, in mounting their Cannon to cover their Paſſage over the River. It is ſaid that the Rebels have demanded 600 l. Sterling Contribution from the Inhabitants of Falkirk.

Captain Faulkener, in the Vulture Sloop, being arrived at Inverkeithen Road, ſent the Cutter and Boats before, who, upon their Arrival in Kincardin Road, ſaw a Brig come out of Airth, which the Rebels had ſeized in order to tranſport their Cannon from Allowa up the Firth, to batter Stirling Caſtle. The next Morning Captain Faulkener arrived in the Road likewiſe, and upon the Lieutenant of the Pearle's informing him of this, and of there being two more Veſſels in Airth that were liable to be ſeized by the Rebels for the ſame Purpoſe, he ſent the Boats mann'd and arm'd to burn them, which they effectually performed without the Loſs of a Man, though the Rebels fired ſome Platoons from the Town. While this was doing the Tide fell ſo low, that he could not return to the Road that Night, upon which the Rebels in Airth opened a Battery of three Pieces of Cannon, and in the Morning began to play upon him very unexpectedly, but did him no Damage. The Fire from the Sloop diſmounted two of their Cannon, killed their principal Engineer, as they heard by a Man of the Town, with ſome others, and drove the Rebels all out of the Town, and from their Battery; after which they drew off their Cannon to Elphingſtone, and at the ſame Time got one more from the Body of their Army at Falkirk, and erected with them a Four Gun Battery on the Point of Elphingſtone, in order to guard the Paſs.

Colonel Leighton join'd them the 9th with 300 Men, and it was agreed to attack the Brig at Allowa, which had on board the Rebels Cannon; and for that Purpoſe to ſend 50 of Colonel Leighton's Men in a large Boat, with the Ship's Boats mann'd and arm'd, to lie all Night a Mile above Allowa, to prevent the ſaid Brig's going up the Firth that Night, and Captain Faulkener and Colonel Leighton agreed to go up in the Morning Tide to attack the Town, and take her from under the Guns of Allowa, all which might have been executed, but the Boats, after they had paſſed the Town, unluckily grounded, which diſcovered the whole; upon which the Rebels beat to Arms, and fired from Right to Left very near Half a Mile, and obliged the Boats to retreat, with the Loſs of one Man, and another's Leg ſhot off, but it prevented the Brig's going up that Tide; however it was reſolved to go up in the Morning with the Ships, and Colonel Leighton's Men were landed at Kincardine, in order to attack them by Land; but while this was doing, the Brig took the Opportunity of the Tide, and ſail'd up the Firth. According to Accounts ſince received, ſhe had only two large Pieces of Cannon on board with Ammunition. There remains at Allowa five Pieces more, three of which are mounted on the Key.

Navy-Office, Dec. 20. 1745.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 13th of January they will begin to recall, at the Pay Office in Broadstreet the Ships Books paid by the Right Honourable Mr. Clutterbuck and Sir Charles Wager, late Treasurers of his Majesty's Navy; as also those paid by William Corbett, Esq; and will continue the same from Week to Week, till all Claims shall be satisfied; they therefore desire all Persons who have Demands on the said Gentlemen, will forthwith apply for the same, that the said Pay Books may be closed as soon as possible.

Navy-Office, Dec. 20, 1745.

As the Passing the Accounts of the Right Honourable Mr. Clutterbuck, and Sir Charles Wager, late Treasurers of his Majesty's Navy; as likewise the Accounts of William Corbett, Esq; are carrying on at this Office with all the Expedition that may be, it is recommended to such Persons as have had Bills assigned upon them by the Navy Board, and have not received their Money for the said Bills, forthwith to call for the same; and all Persons who have any Imprests standing out against them, and have not any Bills or Accounts in this Office to clear the said Imprests, are desired forthwith to bring in their Bills or Accounts to discharge them, that so the said Imprests may not be brought to Account, and returned into the Exchequer, as otherwise they will be: And such Persons as have passed their Accounts, and have not taken up their Imprests, are required to carry their Perfect Bills to the late Treasurers Office, and to take up their Imprests.

Navy Office, January 17, 1745.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice to such Persons as are possessed of Bills carrying Interest, made out in the Months of May and June last, and payable on the Course of the Navy, Victualling, or Transports, that they may, on bringing the said Bills to the Office of the Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy in Broad Street, on or before the 3d of February now next ensuing, receive Tallies and Orders on the Land Tax for the Year 1746, carrying Interest at the Rate of 4 l. per Cent. per Annum, to the Amount and in Discharge of what shall be due on their said Bills respectively.

Victualling Office, January 16, 1745.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Friday the 24th Instant, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to treat for Oxen and Hogs for Sea Store for the Port of Plymouth; for the Service of his Majesty's Navy.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Saphire, who were on board at the taking a French Prize call'd La Talante, that they may receive their several Shares of the said Prize, on Wednesday the 5th Day of February next, at the Baptist Head Tavern, the Corner of Aldermanbury; and that the Shares which are not then demanded, may be received at the same Place the first Wednesday in every Month till they are all paid.

Notice is hereby given, that the Captains and Officers, who by Agreement are entitled to Shares in the La Chamflour, a French Prize, taken by His Majesty's Ship Augusta, the Honourable John Hamilton, Esq; Commander, that a Dividend of the Ship and Cargo, exclusive of the Silver, will be made on Friday the 24th of January Instant, at the Antwerp Tavern behind the Royal Exchange, from Ten to Two; and the Shares not then demanded, will be paid at the same Place on the first Friday of every Month, and at Mr. Morsheads, Merchant in Plymouth, the third Thursday in every Month, for three Years to come.

Whereas the private Ship of War called the Ruby, (Robert Saunders Commander) did in or about the Months of July and August, 1744. take and seize three French Vessels, called Le St. Francois de Paule, (Antoine Martin, Master,) Le Postillon de Salonique, (Antoine Fougasse, Master) and Le St. Laurent, (Jean Jacques Masser, Master) the first of which was carried into Malta, the second into Rhodes, and the third into Zant. And whereas the said three French Vessels, together with the several Goods, Wares and Merchandizes, therein laden, and therewith taken and seized, were on the sixth Day of December, 1744, condemned in the High Court of Admiralty of England as the Ships and Goods of Enemies, and as good and lawful Prize to the Captors: Now this is to give Notice to all and every the Officers and Mariners then on board, and in the Service of the said private Ship of War the Ruby, Robert Saunders Commander, that the Owners thereof, do intend to make a Distribution of the Produce of the said Prizes, according to the Terms of the Agreement entered into by the said Officers and Mariners, and that the said Owners will meet at the Cross Keys in Cornhill, on Wednesday the 26th Day of February next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, in order to pay to the said Officers and Mariners of the said private Ship of War the Ruby, Robert Saunders, Commander, their several and respective Shares and Proportions of the said French Prizes; at which Time and Place they are desired to attend in order to receive the same.

At a General Court of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, held at their publick Office, in Threadneedle-street, on Wednesday the 15th of January, 1745.

Resolved,

THAT a General Court be held on Monday the 20th of January instant, at the usual Hour.

SUPPLEMENT

To the Gazette of the 14th of January 1745.

Published by Authority.

Inverneſs, December 30.

OUR Force at preſent is about 1700 Highlanders, and three Companies more of 100 each are expected. Of the Troops aſſembled, ſeven Companies are between this and Spay, the reſt are at Inverneſs.

Dumbarton, Jan. 8. Lieut. Colonel John Campbell arrived here laſt Night, to take the Command of 700 Men who are quartered here, conſiſting of three Companies of Lord Loudoun's Regiment, one of Lord John Murray's, and eight of Argyleſhire Militia.

Edinburgh, Jan. 9. This Day at Noon we had an Account, that the Rebels got into the Town of Stirling Yeſterday at Four, the Inhabitants opening the Gates, as the Town was not defenſible. The Militia Officers, with all the Arms, went into the Caſtle. Their Men by ſmall Parcels all made their Eſcape. We are aſſured that Major General Blakeney is very well provided with Men and Proviſions. The Rebels have but two Cannon of Twelve Pounders, which with great Labour they brought round by the Frew; one Eighteen Pounder, which they have been unſucceſsfully trying to paſs over at Allowa on Floats, is ſtill there. Yeſterday General Hawley ſent up ſome Boats armed, and a ſmall Veſſel with Cannon, mann'd with 300 Men, under the Command of Colonel Leighton, to deſtroy all their Machines: There is as yet no Report from him.

Edinburgh, Jan. 10. Barrell's and Poulteney's Regiments came in here this Day, ſo that we have now twelve Battalions. Sempill's and Campbell's are upon the Road; and Cobham's Dragoons are to be this Day at Dunſe. Diſpoſitions are making to march the Day after To-morrow towards the Rebels with 3 or 4000 Men, which are to take Poſt at Linlithgow, Barrowſtoun, and Queen's Ferry, and will be able, as it is hoped, to drive away Lord Kilmarnock from Falkirk. As ſoon as the Train of Artillery is ready, it is propoſed to march to Stirling.

Edinburgh, Jan. 10. By Expreſs from Stirling there is Advice, that immediately after the Rebels enter'd the Town, they ſent off three Pieces of Cannon, Four-Pounders, to the Hill of Airth, to prevent his Majeſty's Ships getting further up the River, and to cover the Paſſage of their heavy Cannon now lying near Allowa. All Yeſterday two Men of War continued firing upon them whilſt they were mounting their Cannon, and beat them off from that Place, ſo that laſt Night the Rebels were obliged to remove their Cannon about a Mile further up this Side the River, and propoſed to mount them this Day. Yeſterday the Pretender's Son reviewed the Troops at Falkirk, which amounted to the Number of 1685 Men, and returned immediately afterwards to Stirling.

Since the above Account, we have received the following Advices, viz. That two Skiffs, that lay a-ground at Airth, had been burnt by the Veſſels ſent from hence, notwithſtanding a Battery of Cannon which the Rebels had erected there; ſome of their Men were killed and wounded before they marched off with their Cannon, which they fired frequently, but did no Damage. On Thurſday they were erecting a Battery with thoſe Cannon at Elphingſtone, which our Veſſels deſigned to attack, and to proceed if poſſible to Allowa. It is apprehended that they have got ſix Cannon there, and above 300 Men, and about 200 at Elphingſtone.
